AUGUST 2017

THANK YOU DEMOLARS

As we enter into a time of transition here at BPC let's take a moment to rejoice in the amazing gifts we received from our Lord through Jim and Barb Demolar. We really hit the jackpot when we welcomed them here 20 years ago! Jim has a remarkable way of teaching - using humor and humility - that is always grounded in God's Word and lifts us up through the Good News. Barb is a prayer warrior like no other. She genuinely loves to commune with God and has been praying for each of us consistently during her time here. Together they have created a culture of Welcoming at BPC that draws in people and invites them to stay. We will miss them both so much but what joy it should bring to each of us knowing that these two precious believers will continue to pray for each of us and for BPC.

GOODBYE MORMANS

We are so grateful for the Morman family and their contributions to the BPC community. They truly jumped in head first and became deeply involved from the beginnings of attending despite having 3 young children and multiple other life commitments! We are greatly going to miss their warm open and humble hearts. They've been an integral part of our church in so many ways but much of what they do is behind the scenes. We have so appreciated the exceptional work Genna has put towards helping create and maintain our website over the years. Additionally, she has been the backbone of all our graphics and visuals that are used on Sunday mornings and beyond. Andy has served as an elder these past couple years while maintaining his commitments to his family, friends and his role as director of Young Life in our mountain community. His passion, vision, organizational skills and drive for constantly moving forward while keeping his eyes fixed on the Creator is going to be missed. We know they will be used in mighty ways in Seattle, WA. We truly wish them all the best.

WAYS TO PRAY

- Jim & Barb request prayer as they finish their years of ministry at BPC. Hard to say goodbye but so thankful for all of you and what God has done.
- Pray for the Freemans as they arrive in Colorado. Continued prayers for their home to sell and for a new home in Evergreen.
